

English Language Excellence

In an ever-changing global education landscape, ELC remains committed to delivering quality English language education through effective teaching methods and student-focused programs. We understand the importance of being a trusted school partner who can provide students with a rewarding learning experience and support their language learning goals.
In this newsletter, we are pleased to share an overview of ELC's English language courses, designed to meet diverse student needs and aspirations. We hope this update equips our valued education partners with the confidence and insights to recommend ELC Malaysia to prospective students, while strengthening our partnership and creating new opportunities for collaboration.

Bildungsurlaub Accreditation

Bildungsurlaub is a German initiative that allows employees to take additional paid leave for professional development. This special leave enables employees to improve their skills and knowledge. It demonstrates Germany's commitment to growth and education, a concept we share here at ELC Malaysia.
We are proud to have the Bildungsurlaub accreditation and warmly welcome German employees to our school.

Our Students' Activities

October Breast Cancer Awareness Month

It is truly heartwarming to see our ELC students take the initiative to present on Breast Cancer Awareness Month, proudly wearing and displaying the pink ribbon in support of this meaningful cause.
We are proud of our students for using their voices to spread awareness and promote a culture of kindness, empathy, and community support.

Russian Cultural Day

Our Russian students proudly shared the beauty and diversity of their homeland by introducing places of interest across Russia. Through their presentations, students had the opportunity to discover Russia's rich culture, fascinating history, and remarkable landmarks, celebrating the spirit of cultural exchange and learning from one another.

Appreciating Fine Arts

Our students visited The Urban Museum (UR–MU), a unique collection of private contemporary art museums that showcases the diverse artistic expressions of the region. UR–MU offers an engaging glimpse into the aspirations, moods, and cultural identity of the city, nation, and wider region. The visit provided our students with an opportunity to appreciate contemporary art and gain a deeper understanding of the stories and perspectives that shape our cultural landscape.
