

Welcome to the ELC Community

September is a wonderful time for new beginnings. We are especially pleased to welcome our newest students to ELC Malaysia and to see our community come together once again. From the classroom to activities beyond school, we look forward to a term filled with learning, friendship and memorable moments.

Our Students' Activities

Celebrating Merdeka and Malaysia Day: A Blend of Culture and Customs

We came together to celebrate Merdeka and Malaysia Day with our international students. More than just a celebration, the occasion was a timely reminder that culture brings us together. By sharing our traditions and learning from one another, we continue to build a warm, inclusive community where everyone feels a sense of belonging. It was a joyful celebration of Malaysia's diversity, heritage, and unity truly a blend of culture and customs.

Cultural Fun and Games

Our students had the opportunity to experience Malaysian culture and customs through hands-on activities. They tried their hand at traditional games such as congkak and batu lima, explored their creativity by painting beautiful kolam on candle holders, and discovered the flavours of Malaysia by sampling a selection of local treats.

Dressing the Part

Adding to the fun, students also tried on local traditional attire, giving them a glimpse into the diverse cultural heritage and customs that make Malaysia so unique.

More News in September

ELC at ST Alphe London

Datuk Lau Wai Cheng, ELC Malaysia Managing Director attended the ST Alphe London in September, gaining valuable insights into the global education travel market.

Malaysia's strengths in English proficiency, cultural diversity, accessibility and rich learning experiences, position the country well as interest in ASEAN, summer camps and short-term programmes continues to grow. B2B discussions also highlighted that families and students are increasingly seeking quality experiences that offer good value.

The event provided valuable connections and fresh perspectives on how Malaysia and ASEAN can offer meaningful learning experiences beyond the classroom.

EduPlus 2.0 Launch

EduPlus 2.0 was officially launched on 23 September in collaboration with Tourism Malaysia and NAPEI, bringing together education, eco-tourism, culture and hands-on learning. The event was graced by Tourism Malaysia Director-General Mohd Amirul Rizal Abdul Rahim, alongside Datuk Lau Wai Cheng, our Managing Director representing NAPEI, the National Association of Private Educational Institutions of Malaysia.

Designed for schools, families and education partners, EduPlus 2.0 offers meaningful experiences across STEM, sustainability, environmental awareness, arts, culture and Malaysian heritage. Through guided activities, students explore, collaborate, communicate and build confidence while learning in real-world settings.

More to learn and experience beyond the classroom.
